Fraser River Trail Interpretive Signage

In a January Council workshop, the Headwaters River Journey and Fraser River Development Co. presented a proposal to install interpretive signage and play features along the Fraser River Trail. The proposed project budget would be $536,000 with over half the funds potentially coming from a GOCO grant. Based on the project analysis and future costs with maintaining the features, Council gave direction to staff to continue working with Headwaters on logistics pertaining to the interpretive trail before moving forward with pursuing a GOCO grant.
